

TWO AMERICANS HELD
IN LONDON SHOOTING

Officer and Engineer of Shipping Board Vessel Protest Their Innocence.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Close watch is being kept by the American Consulate on the case of two Americans who have been in Hriston Prison since July 19 on a charge of being implicated in a shooting affray near the Strand. Both are New Yorkers, one of them, Joseph Faber, being engineer officer on the Shipping Board vessel Cotami, and the other, Frank Skasko, engineer on the same vessel. They declare they are innocent and assert the row was started by a gang trying to get money away from them and that some unidentified person fired the shot which hit a man near the scene of the altercation. On the second hearing of the case at Bow Street the charge of attempted murder was reduced to a charge of shooting with intent to wound and the $5,000 bail in each case reduced to $250.

Efforts are being made to find a bondsman among American business men here. The well known American barrister, D. Campbell Lee, has taken up the men's case as the result of the consulate's efforts to assist them. Cross-examination of a number of those who assert the shot was fired by one of the Americans revealed the fact that some of these witnesses already had bad police records.

FOR MISS 14 TO 20

Silk Frocks with the lengthened waistline,
$49.50

Favored of Paris—because it adds an additional touch of youthfulness to the straight-line silhouette.

We have reproduced in crepe rich—a new Fall material—a charming Lorraine model, smartly trimmed with girde of rosettes in self material. A rosette of the material also adorns the short kimono sleeves. In navy blue and black.

The frock shown at the left with the long bell sleeves—a Jenny sleeve—is of canton crepe on which bands and rosettes of self colored more ribbon have been attractively draped. In navy blue and black.

Canton crepe fashions another model which we have been able to reproduce at considerably less than the cost of the original frock. Fagoting is cleverly used in indicating the lengthened waistline and in outlining the square cut sleeves and wide cuffs. In navy blue and black.

Poirot twill Frocks, $39.50
This model—illustrated above—has also been made with the lengthened waistline. Canton crepe of a contrasting color has been skilfully inset on collar, cuffs and bottom of skirt. In navy blue and tan, and navy and Copenhagen blue.
